Dear Tonya Mead:

Thank you for your interest in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

This e-mail responds to your request for records under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, file number F24-178.

You requested:

• "... data in xls or cvs format from years 2019 to 12/2023, information by agency and sub-agency and/or division by SES and GS levels: the total # employees employed FT and PT the # employees (a) eligible to participate in telework and those (b) participating 5 U.S.C. 6502(a)(1)(B)) the # employees listing their primary home as their alternate worksite and report to the agency worksite on a regular basis the # employees participating in a flexible work arrangement where their alternate worksite may be within/ outside the local commuting area and not required to report to the agency worksite on a regular and recurring basis the # eligible employees authorized to telework who have (a) have written agreements as a pre-condition to participation, those who are authorized but (b) have no agreement (5 U.S.C. 6502(b)(2)) the # eligible employee authorized to telework who've (a) maintained acceptable levels of performance, per OPM guidelines (5 U.S.C. 6502(b)(1)) and (b) those who have not to list the steps managers have taken if telework is denied/revoked for disciplined employees for specified misconduct ((5 U.S.C. 6502(a)(2)) (5 U.S.C. 6502(b)(1), 6503(a)(4)) the # eligible employees authorized to telework who've been denied or revoked telework agreements when (a) disciplined for specified misconduct or (b) their jobs require on-site activity (5 U.S.C. 6502(a)(2)) the # of newly staffed employees hired to manage teleworkers to maintain compliance with their agreements, as required by 5 U.S.C. 6502(b)(3) the # of re-assigned employees required to manage teleworkers to maintain compliance with their telework agreement the number of (a) employees and number of (b) incidents per employee where appropriate steps to end the arrangement if non-compliance is not promptly corrected."

We conducted a search and have determined that the NEA has no responsive records.

The National Endowment for the Arts is governed by the provisions of the National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities Act, 20 U.S.C. §951 et seq., and the Freedom of Information Act with respect to the release of agency records. In accordance with the NEA's FOIA regulations, 45 CFR §1148.8, you may appeal the Agency's determination. Such an appeal must be made to the Chair of the National Endowment for the Arts within ninety days after the date of this e-mail. Additional information about the appeal process can be found at FOIA| NEA (<https://www.arts.gov/about/freedom-of-information-act-foia-guide>).

If you would like to discuss our response to your FOIA request or file an appeal, or if you would like to resolve your dispute, you can contact our FOIA Public Liaison (<https://www.arts.gov/about/foia/foia-public-liaison>) for assistance. If we are unable to resolve your FOIA issue through our FOIA Public Liaison, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), the Federal FOIA Ombudsman office, offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. The contact information for OGIS is:
